Re: Natasha Faison-Williams v. United States, 20 Civ. 8329 (JLR)

Dear Judge Rochon:

This Office represents the United States of America (the “Government”) in the above-referenced medical malpractice action brought by plaintiff Natasha Faison-Williams (“Plaintiff”) under the Federal Tort Claims Act, 28 U.S.C. §§ 1346(b), 2671 et seq. On May 28, the Court entered an Order scheduling a status conference on June 5, 2025, at 10 a.m. in Courtroom 20B. See Order, dated May 28, 2025 (ECF No. 106). With Plaintiff’s consent, I write respectfully to request a one-week adjournment of the status conference from June 5 to June 12. The reason for the request is that I will be unable to attend a status conference in person on June 5 due to medical reasons. However, counsel for both parties are available to attend the status conference in person on June 12, or if the Court is unavailable that day, alternatively on June 10 or 11 or on another date convenient for the Court. I thank the Court for its consideration of this request.

Respectfully submitted,

JAY CLAYTON
United States Attorney for the
Southern District of New York
Attorney for the United States of America
